How are deadlines calculated?

The day of notification is not counted. If the due date is a Sunday (or a public holiday), you can also pay on the next working day.

What happens in case of a failed delivery attempt?

The notification is the day of the collection, if this occurs within 10 days from the date printed on the non-delivery notice. If you don't collect the notice within 10 days, count the deadlines starting from the 11th day.

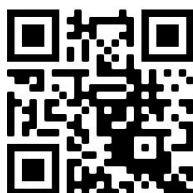

Choose the correct amount depending on deadlines, otherwise you will receive other payment requests for the remaining and/or additional amounts.
